PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Creative Strategist and Entertainment Producer with nearly a decade of software engineering foundation and 5+ years building digital entertainment brands from the ground up. I have grown communities to 104K+ YouTube subscribers, produced live events reaching 2,500+ concurrent viewers, and led and created music projects with global brands including AKA Virtual, ASUS and Hololive Indonesia. I bring rare technical depth to creative and brand work — bridging the gap between how things are built and how they connect with people.

Currently seeking a senior creative, brand strategy, or entertainment marketing role where technical fluency and creative vision work together.

CORE SKILLS

Creative & Strategic: Brand Identity & Creative Direction, Campaign Strategy & Activation, Content Production, Storytelling & Narrative, Community Building

Project & Production: Cross-functional Team Leadership, End-to-End Event Production, Music Production Workflow, Budget & Timeline Management, Vendor & Partner Coordination

Technical Foundation: Software Engineering (8+ yrs), Data-driven Campaign Evaluation, UX & Digital Product Thinking

Tools: Canva, CapCut, Asana, Trello, Jira, Google Suite, Microsoft Office, Adobe Photoshop

Languages: Indonesian (Native) • English (C1) • Japanese (N4)
